

Frequently Asked Questions about Cremation

	Flame Cremation	Natural Water Cremation
Available on-site at Ballard-Sunder Funeral & Cremation	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Uses fire to break down the body:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Uses water and potassium (KOH) to break down the body:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
How long does the cremation take?	2-3 Hours	4-5 Hours
Can I see my loved one before the cremation?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Can extended family and friends see them before cremation?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Are we allowed to be involved in a Cremation Committal Ceremony?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
What kind of Cremation Container is used?	Cardboard & Plywood	Biodegradable Shroud
What is returned to family members?	Cremated Remains	Hydrolyzed Remains
What color are the remains that we will get back?	Cream or Grey	White (up to 30% more)
Implants and non-biodegradable materials are recycled:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Environmentally Responsible Choice:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> +
Uses a Zero NOx Emissions System :	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Uses a gentler process for cremation:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>